June 12, 2022

Food Pantry Urgent Needs: In May, the Food Pantry served 50 families and fed 205 people with 6,399 pounds of food. This was almost double that of the previous month with mostly large families being served. We anticipate even more of an increase with schools out and are requesting help purchasing these items. Items can be placed in the food pantry baskets by the crosswalk entrance.

Thank you for your generosity!

- Mac & Cheese
- Small cans of Tuna
- Small cans of Chicken
- Dry Milk
- Canned Corn
- Canned Peas
- Canned Green Beans
- Spaghetti Sauce
- Spaghetti (1 & 2 pound boxes)
- Rice (1 & 2 pound bags)

Volunteers Needed. First Responders Appreciation Day—Thursday, June 16. Volunteers needed to bake cookies to be distributed to first responder stations. Cookies can be dropped off at the church on Wednesday, June 15 or Thursday, June 16. Volunteers wishing to distribute should be at the church at 5pm on June 16.

Volunteers Needed. Social Circle Independence Day Celebration—Saturday, June 25 from 5-10pm. FBCSC will participate with a float and a booth at the celebration. Volunteers needed for float prep, float participation and booth participation (passing out freeze pops).
